Abstract

The purpose of writing this report are: internships in duty-free shops at KingPower, gain work experience, different and learn the rules of the system can work in large companies already understand China and Thailand apprenticeship training in that.and work-life issues, but also learn how to solve student issues Thailand to provide similar contrast and difference between Chinese.Thailand solution of intern.

After completing an internship at duty-free shops KingPower.The experience of induction and outlines the similarities and differences between China and Thailand in order to learn how to solve problems, promote the development of friendship between Thailand and China.But the advantage of learning from each other in the body fixes itself to be more stable.Developing well

SPU CHONBURI